PROCEDURE TO DEAL WITH A LOST CONVENTION CREDENTIAL (BADGE)

A delegate who loses their convention credential (badge) can replace it by completing the attached Lost Delegate Badge Authorization form (found on the next page). The delegate must then contact their local union officer or executive member to have them complete the “Signing officer” portion of the form.

After the presiding union officer has signed the form, the delegate will take it to the Solutions Desk. Before a new badge can be issued, one of the Credentials Committee Co-chairs will authorize the form.

This process may take up to an hour or more to complete.

The delegate must return to the Solutions Desk to pick up their new badge.
